But in Para 2 it is stated that he ceased till 16th Jan 07, then went on Combined leave & subsequently resigned the service. As the Medical Officer's temporary service since the Jail Sub Assistant Surgeon cannot serve Govt and his service has to begin afresh from the date of his confirmation as the Assistant now recommended & the decision of Simpson. Under these circumstances Para and as the Dharwar Municipality resigned of his own accord there is now none cent. that the period out of employ as leave without allce. The question of condoning the break allowing previous service to count Govt orders to be taken up when the case for his pension comes up. As there are no special circumstances urged pleading for treatment. In these circumstances the proposed draft cannot be concurred in

Office of Senior Surgeon, Mysore Govt.,

Dated, Bangalore, 8/9.11. 1911

From

P.S. Achyuta Rao Esquire,
~~Lt.-Col. John Smyth, M.D., I.M.S.,~~
Offg Senior Surgeon with the Government of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

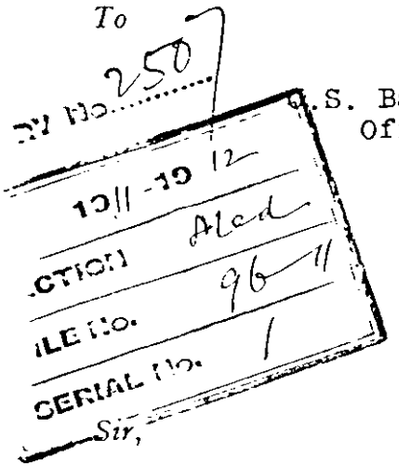
To



G.S. Balasundaram Iyer Esq. B.A.,
Offg Secretary to the Govt of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore, Genl & Rev Deptts.
Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Darasha Framji after having finished a complete course of studies for the L. M & S. degree in the Madras Medical College, but having unfortunately failed to pass the final degree examination, entered the Mysore Medical Service on the 20th February 1898 as a First Class Hospital Assistant.

2. He served till the 16th of July 1907 when owing to domestic difficulties he had to go first on combined leave of absence for six months and then on leave without allowances for one year.

3. His very old father Framji Cowasji of Mysore having become greatly involved pecuniarly and a bed-ridden invalid physically, Darasha Framji being his only son had to remain by the bedside of his father.

4. At this stage, he applied for an extension of leave without allowances but was told to produce a medical certificate, which he could not possibly produce as he personally was not suffering from any infirmity- He had perforce to resign the Service.

5. The Mysore Jail Hospital Assistant having applied for long leave of absence (furlough for two years) and as it was found impossible to get anybody to be put in sub charge of the Jail Hospital owing to great shortage of hands even in the sanctioned strength, Darasha Framji was induced to take up a temporary appointment as a First Class Hospital Assistant.

6. This young man had worked very satisfactorily under me in the General Hospital and during the entire Plague season of every year from 1898 to 1906, when I was in medical charge of the Mysore District.

7. As we want hands very badly and as every single individual is so much of a gain to the Department just now and as I have personal experience of the good and efficient work of this Hospital Assistant, I beg very strongly to recommend that Darashaw Framji be confirmed as First Class Hospital Assistant (now Sub Assistant Surgeon) and the period he was not on duty viz,- from the 12th of February 1909 to the 11th of August 1911 be kindly treated as leave without allowances.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. V. Ayyashastri
